

Don't Twist God's Words

"It can be so tempting to try to make it sound like God supports (or even commands) our sinful behavior."

It's incredibly important that we don't twist God's words. He has given us His word in Scripture, and His word is perfect, but if we aren't careful, we can twist it into saying something it was never meant to say. The instructions He gives us in Scripture are for our good, yet it can be so tempting to try to make it sound like God supports (or even commands) our sinful behavior. We should never "put words in God's mouth." Don't twist God's words.
