

Why Can't We See God?

"Wanting to see God is not at all a bad thing; we were made to be with Him!"

The fact that we can't see God can sometimes be really frustrating. In an ideal world, we would see God face to face, but this is not an ideal world. We had that, then lost it. But through Jesus, we can have it again. One reason God chooses to mostly stay invisible to us may be so that we can be truly free to choose Him or not. He's always with us, but if we could see Him, then our love and obedience wouldn't be much of a choice at all. Wanting to see God is not at all a bad thing; we were made to be with Him! But Jesus said, "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."
